Travel

Divine Domain

Gods whose portfolios include the Travel domain— such as Desna, Avandra, Fharlanghn, and Apollo— are patrons of travelers and explorers, whether by sea or land. Travel gods send their priests wandering throughout the world as itinerant preachers, or as guides to those who travel the roads, rivers, wilds, and seas of the world. Followers of Travel gods worship at small roadside temples or self-made shrines at locations important to the traveller.

Well Traveled

At 1st level, you gain proficiency in Land and Water Vehicles, as well as Navigator's Tools. You also learn one language of your choice.

Quickened Pace

At 1st level, you are blessed with quickened travel. Your base movement speed is increased by 5 feet. At 10th level this bonus increases to 10 feet. While you are mounted, your mount is also granted this bonus.

Channel Divinity: Traveling Companion

Starting at 2nd level, you can use your Channel Divinity to share beneficial magic with a traveling companion.

When you cast a spell targeting a single friendly creature, you can use your Channel Divinity to target a second friendly creature (including yourself) in range with the same spell. To be eligible, a spell must be incapable of targeting more than one creature at the spell's current level.

Channel Divinity: Divine Transposition

Starting at 6th level, you can use your channel divinity to teleport or to swap positions with allies.

As an action, you can use your Channel Divinity to teleport up to 30 feet to an unoccupied space that you can see. Alternatively, you can choose a space within range that is occupied by a Small or Medium creature. If that creature is willing, you both teleport, swapping places.

Divine Strike

At 8th level, you gain the ability to infuse your weapon strikes with divine energy. Once on each of your turns when you hit a creature with a weapon attack, you can cause the attack to deal an extra 1d6 damage of the same type dealt by the weapon to the target. If you are at least 10 feet from where you began your turn, add your Wisdom modifier to this bonus. When you reach 14th level, the extra damage increases to 2d6.

Divine Teleportation

Starting at 17th level, You gain the ability to prepare the teleport spell, which counts as a cleric spell for you, and you may treat your familiarity with the target as Very Familiar, unless it is a False Destination. Any creatures you teleport (via any means, not just teleport) are granted the effects of freedom of movement for one minute after arriving at their destination.
